Zandra;

Was pleasantly surprised to receive the package of material from you. I was convinced that I would not hear from you at all--seems to be fairly common in this genealogy business!

The material that you sent is very greatly appreciated. It filled a lot of holes in my holdings PLUS you gave me a whole new generationThomas and Mary KING NOBLETT. I had absolutely nothing on either of them.

I've searched through all that you sent and posted as much as I could into my records. Enclosed are copies of the resultant pedigrees that start with my grandmother (Anna Jane BEVINS KEESEE) and cover all the Pike County related lines that are of mutual concern per your letter. Same with my greatgrandmother Sarah Jane MAYNARD KEESEE (mother of Kenner KEESEE/husband of Anna Jane). Also attached are individual/family group sheets that are directly related. On the charts the vertical colored lines show that I have no info on that/those line/s before the named person. The highlighted #s indicate that a continuation chart exists and is also attached, except for #75 (you didn't indicate that you were interested in the JUSTICE family so didn't include them). On the sheets, the notes at the bottom of each encode all types of background and source info, some of it is easily decipherable and some isn't. My hard and software has some limitations therefore I've had to save as many bits/bytes as I could. The Hn note tells me that some data on the sheet was provided by YOU. Hd = Pam HOLLAND. b20Pk = census 1820 Pike Co etc. etc. etc.

Looks as though we disagree regarding the STACY family. Your listing of George and Mary as parents of Mary Jane STACY BEVINS is totally new to me. My holding of Simon and Elizabeth DAVIDSON STACY as parents is mentioned by WC KOZEE in his books of eastern KY; my basic source. Looks as though I'll have to do some deeper digging. Will you let me know your source?

Also I'm a bit lost in the WILLIAMS, WILLIAMSON, WUSON family/families. Please straighten me out if you can!

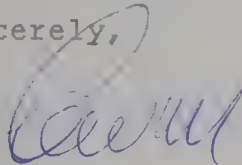

We were in SLC on the 2-5 Oct. Maybe we were even working at the same table!! Coincidences do happen. In fact while there I stumbled over a little lady sitting on a stool between the stacks in the KY section of books--she was my next door neighbor here in South Tahoe!

I have copies of 4 of Mr Scalf's articles in the Eastern Kentuckian. I've not yet gone through the EK in great detail but plan to one of these times in SLC. I have copies of volumes 2, 4 and 5 of the Pike County Historical Papers here and can reciprocate the offer of assistance as appropriate.

I am a member of the Eastern Kentucky Historical Society of Ashland and have copies of the "Treeshaker"--same regarding "The Quill Pen" of the Pittsylvania County (VA) Historical Society. Am always looking for new sources and ways of filling in the unknowns of our predecessors. A BEVINS descendant that still lives in Pikeville knows precisely where the grave of Joseph BEVINS is located and was going to take me there during our visit to Pike County last April but a heavy rainstorm (I'd even forgotten what those things are!) came up. She promised a photo but it hasn't arrived yet.

Hope that the enclosed material is of interest and in a small way reciprocates for the info you passed to me.

Sincerely,

Dear Zandra,

Thank you for the Bevins group sheets.

What I have for Annie Bevins and her husband John Williamson Jr is very incomplete. I have several Williamsons in my tree, but he is the least researched.

On looking over your group sheets I've noticed we have several differences regarding dates:

Ann Horn 11 Jan 1811 Lloyd Co Ky

you 11 Jan 1815

marr 16 Oct 1834 Pike

you 03 Nov 1853 Pike

James marr 12 Mar 1835 Pike

Gemina marr 04 Oct 1843 Pike (common you 14 Oct 1843 Pike) (problem)

Elizabeth Horn 1814

where did you find Rebecca's marr to Geo Stump?

On Eli's marr to Absalom Hurt

wond dated 29 June 1849 Pike

There weren't any parents listed so I hesitated to file him in.

Do you have proof that Eli is Curt?

I believe Lydia Ratliff married

Thomas Jr not Thomas Bevins Sr

but I may be wrong.

Anxiously awaiting your reply,

Zandra, My aunt provided me with bits and pieces of information on this family. I do know that David and Jenny moved to Lawrence Co., KY at some point and are listed in the 1860 census there. My aunt says that his father was Joseph, but I can neither confirm or dispute it.

David and Jenny did have atleast two children, Joseph and Elizabeth BEVINS. Joseph BEVINS born ca 1829 married >> Rebecca WHEELER 28 Nov 1858 in Lawrence Co., KY and had atleast two children: Jane BEVINS b. 14 apr. 1860 and Millie BEVINS b. 7 Jul. 1865 in Lawrence Co., KY.

That is about all I have on this line. I do know that David and Jenny BEVINS were residing around Floyd CO., and possible Pike Co. early on. I'm also trying to tie this Jenny JONES to my elusive John JONES of Floyd Co., KY.

12. Sarah Elizabeth HURT-138 1839

I married his wife, Elizabeth BEVINS, 29 Jul 1849 I do not have any children list for Elizabeth.

Absolam HURT's Parents were Garland HURT, b. 1764 St Stevens Parish, King Williams Co., VA and Martisha Thurston b. abt 1768 in Pittsylvania Co, VA. They were married 25 Sep 1789 in Pittsylvania Co., VA.

Creed F. HURT was my GG-Grandfather.

I haven't verified this info yet but it has given me a good place to start. You might want to check out "The Hurt Family Home Page" at <http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Meadows/8605/> for more info on the HURTs all the way back into England.

I hope this helps,

THE BEVINS FAMILY

(11)

Part I

(This series of articles, by Henry P. Scelf, are from APPALACHIAN NOTEBOOK, a column in the Pike County News, Pikeville, Kentucky)

JOHN BEVINS

J.M. Morris, Bevins family descendant, compiled a record of the family decades ago and in the introduction to the genealogical information, wrote:

1. "Joseph Bevins, Sr., born 1751, died 1824, and wife, Annie Noblett, came from Ireland to America in 1770 and settled in Scott County, Virginia, near Osborn's Ford. They came to Pike County (then Floyd), Kentucky, in 1803, and settled on Big Sandy River near Pikeville. In 1807 he came to Johns Creek and settled near the mouth of Raccoon Creek where he got possession of a vast amount of wild land where he lived and died. He was the founder of all the Bevins families in the Big Sandy Valley."

This traditional account of the origin of the Bevins family in Pike County may be substantially in error. Scott County, Virginia, was not yet formed, it having been created from Washington, Russell and Lee counties, in 1814. Joseph's son, John, was born in Russell County in 1786, and John's first son, George, was born in Virginia in 1808, according to the 1850 Pike County census. James, who was John's second son, was born in Virginia in 1809. So, evidently, Joseph Bevins came to Pike County a few years later than the traditional record asserts. He probably came about 1810.

Annie Noblett, Joseph's wife, did not come to America from Ireland as the wife of Joseph. The Nobletts were already seated in Pennsylvania and there is considerable inferential evidence that Joseph and Annie were married in Grayson County, Virginia.

Again, contrary to the traditional record, there is no evidence that Joseph Bevins was a large landowner. His son, John, was, however. The land on Coon Creek most probably was preempted early by John Bevins, not Joseph. This columnist reserves the right to be in error and is subject to correction. Who will?

Joseph Bevins' son, Thomas, was born in Virginia in 1788, came to Pike County and settled at the mouth of the Road Fork of Big Creek, a tributary of Tug River. A third son, George, accompanied the Bevins group from Virginia to Pike County but did not settle in Pike, then Floyd County, but descended the river to a stream about 12 miles south of the present Louisa. It was ever afterward called George's Creek for him.

Joseph Bevins left two sons and a daughter in Virginia -- Joseph, Jr., James, and Rebecca. Rebecca married a Bond. These two sons and daughter stayed in Virginia and did not remove to Kentucky.

John Bevins seems to have been quite active in the establishment of Pike County in 1821-22. He was appointed one of the five justices which constituted a body similar to our present day fiscal court. June 3, 1822, Rheubin Rutherford resigned as justice and Thomas Bevins was sworn by his brother John to succeed Rutherford. Thomas continued in office for many years. There are many marriages on the Pike County records where in it stated Thomas was the officiating justice. He died suddenly, May 11, 1847.

Thomas Bevins married, November 19, 1807, to Elizabeth Porter. She was a daughter of Samuel Porter and was born August 2, 1789, died June 10, 1833. Thomas and his wife are buried on a point on the left hand side of Bevins Branch on upper Johns Creek. They were the parents of 15 children. Following the death of Elizabeth Porter Bevins, Thomas remarried to Lydia Ratliff, who, according to the 1850 Pike County census was born in 1798. Four children were born to this last union.

John Bevins married Mary Jane Stacy, born 1790. Eleven children were born to this marriage. John was 72 years old and his wife was 66 years old at the time of the second marriage. Nancy Ratliff Bevins was born in Montgomery County, Virginia. Date of the marriage was February 4, 1858. Witnesses were Wm. A. Ratliff and R. Syck.

The Bevinses who live on the Levicy Fork of Big Sandy River in Pike County are descended from James Bevins, son of John. James married Elizabeth Justice, daughter of Peyton Justice, who was hanged by a roving band of Home Guards in the Civil War.

John Bevins enumerated in 1830 Pike County census which was the first taken of the county after it was severed from the parent county of Floyd.

It is said that Joseph Bevins, the Irish immigrant, was a linen weaver. His point of origin in Ireland was Belfast. The Morris family record says that Joseph was buried at the mouth of 'Coon Creek but a descendant takes issue with this and states he was buried on George's Creek. She thinks, too, that Joseph married a second time and was the father of a David Bevins who married Jenny Jones in Floyd County, December 8, 1823. Also Joseph may have been the father of a William Bivine or Bevins, by this second marriage.

By Henry P. Scalf

From APPALACHIAN NOTEBOOK, Pike County News, Pikeville, Ky.JAMES BEVINS FAMILY

This column in two previous articles several months ago discussed the descendants of John Bevins and Thomas Bevins, brothers, sons of Joseph Bevins and Annie Noblett Bevins. This article will discuss James Bevins and his descendants who were known as the "River Bevinses" because most of them resided south of Pikeville.

James, second son of John Bevins and Mary Jane Stacy Bevins, was born 1809 in Russell County, Virginia, according to the 1850 Pike County Census. He married Elizabeth Justice, daughter of Peyton and Polly Blackburn Bevins, of or near the present Mulard. Date of their marriage is March 12, 1831.

Since the Justice family owned many slaves and thousands of acres of land in southern Pike County, James and Elizabeth settled on a portion of the Peyton Justice estate near the joining of the Levisa and Russell forks of the Big Sandy River. Through his wife's inheritance and his own initiative, he acquired a farm of 700 acres.

Children of the union of James and Elizabeth Justice Bevins were James Matt, born June 2, 1836, died Jan. 10, 1910, married Mary Jane Hamilton, Jan. 1, 1860; Mary A. (Polly), born Sept. 12, 1838, died 1909, married Andrew Moore. Sarilda, born Feb. 9, 1840, died 1924, married George Blackburn, Aug. 30, 1860; Sarah, born Feb. 10, 1843, died 1918, married James H. Justice;

John, born March 4, 1845, died August 18, 1893, married three times, names of his wives unavailable; William (Will), born Sept. 27, 1855, died March 16, 1919, married a Hendley; George born Oct. 4, 1859, died Feb. 2, 1893, never married; T.J. (Jeff), born Feb. 29, 1862, died Sept. 8, 1912, married Manerva Belcher, 1887.

Manerva Belcher Bevins was born Nov. 7, 1869, died 1907. She was a daughter of Davidson Belcher and Nancy J. Bishop Belcher. Davidson was a son of James Belcher and Polly McCombs Belcher, and a grandson of George Belcher, Revolutionary War soldier and Mary Fugate Belcher.

Peyton Justice, father-in-law of James Bevins, was a prominent man in the years preceding the Civil War. The marriage of James Bevins and Elizabeth Justice had united two of Pike County's most numerous and outstanding families. Simeon Justice, one of the men chiefly responsible for the creation of Pike County, was a Justice of the Peace and in 1852 he was serving as County Judge. Simeon was a brother of Peyton Justice and thus an uncle of Elizabeth Justice Bevins. James Bevins was also an early Justice of the Peace and in 1852 was serving as clerk of the county and circuit courts, the two offices being combined under the third Constitution of Kentucky. This was the third public office James Bevins held for he had been Sheriff, 1840-1844.

The turmoil of the Civil War brought tragedy to the Justice and Bevins family. Roving bands of guerrillas looted and burned all over the Big Sandy valley. The Home Guards, created to keep order in the county, were infiltrated by men little better than the guerrillas they were charged with suppressing and by the end of the internecine struggle the Home Guards in many counties were completely dominated by these criminal elements.

In 1863 the Home Guards came to the home of Peyton Justice and demanded that he inform them where Green and Flem Justice were hiding. Peyton affirmed that he had no knowledge of the whereabouts of the two. The Home Guards put Peyton under an ultimatum -- produce Green and Flem Justice within two weeks or suffer the penalty of death.

In the weeks they returned to the Justice home and reissued their demand. Peyton again protested he had no knowledge of the whereabouts of his sons. Seizing the aged man, for he was born in 1789 and was thus 74 years old, they took him up a nearby hollow. Finding a tree that would serve their nefarious purpose, they hanged him. Polly Justice, one year younger than her husband, yoked oxen, hitched them to a sled and hauled the body of her husband to the house. The story of Peyton's death was to live on and on with his descendants and is told today with detail and clarity as if it had occurred just a few years and not 115 years in the past. Polly Justice contributed much to the preservation of the story for she lived until 1897, dying at the venerable age of 107 years.

The 1850 Pike County Census gives the age of James Bevins as 41 years, which would make his birth year 1809. However, the family Bible records his birth as 1806, which is probably correct for the Bevins' were meticulous in recording genealogical information. He died in 1864 and his wife, Elizabeth, born December 24, 1819, died Feb. 3, 1908, the year following the death of her mother.

John Bevins, son of James and Elizabeth Justice Bevins, was the father of seven sons: Willie, born 1871, died 1937; Monty, born 1877, died April 10, 1949; David, born August 20, 1880, died Dec. 12, 1960; Taulby, born 1888; Grover C., born 1889, died April 22, 1952; Tilden, born 1891, died 1930; Trimble, born 1892.

JAMES BEVINS FAMILY - PART II

James Bevins, whom we discussed in the preceding column, was Sheriff of Pike County 1840-1842 and it became his duty to hang a man, Edd, a Negro slave, in a fit of rage, set fire to a house on Slone's Branch in which a woman and two children resided. The names are lost to tradition and as far as this columnist knows, no court record exists as to the trial and crime. Short strift was usually made of slaves who committed crimes and officials felt no responsibility to history when they hanged one.

The woman and the two children had succumbed in the fire and "Negro Edd," as he was called, was seized and hanged. James Bevins, in his capacity of Sheriff, supervised the execution. This story, like that of the hanging of James' father-in-law, Peyton Justice, at the hands of the Home Guards became another family legend.

During his long career as Justice of the Peace, High Sheriff, Clerk of the County and Circuit Courts, James Bevins erected a store at the mouth of the Levisa Fork and conducted a general merchandist business for many years. His old account book, now in the possession of George (Bud) Bevins, a descendant at Millard, is an invaluable historical record of the trading habits of the times. It is still in good condition after having survived the Civil War, the floods of 1862 and 1957. It records the store's transactions for the years of 1837 and 1838.

Stores were few in the Big Sandy Valley in 1837 for the thin population and the hazards of transportation on the river by pushboat did not make the business a profitable one to any great extent. In 1837 the first steamboat ventured up the river and in the winter when the river was full the little crafts could penetrate the valley as far as the junction of the Levisa and Russell forks. This may have been the deciding factor in inducing James Bevins to enter the business.

Customers came from all over the region to trade at the store, bringing furs, hides and ginseng, which they bartered for the necessities of life in a region just a few years removed from pioneer years. These customers wanted dry goods, indigo, salt, powder, lead, saleratus (soda). Polly Leslie rode horseback over the primitive roads from Johns Creek to trade for indigo and turkey red down with which she colored the cloth that went into beautiful coverlets.

Thomas Jefferson (Jeff) Bevins, born to James and Elizabeth Justice Bevins in 1862, was an infant of one year when the Home Guards hanged his grandfather, Peyton Justice. He married, as noted in last week's column, Manerva Belcher. Issue of this union were Grover C. Bevins, born Sept. 17, 1888; George (Bud) Bevins born Sept. 10, 1890; Don Bevins, born March 20, 1892, died June 16, 1922 unmarried; Lillie Bevins, born Dec. 26, 1893; James P. Bevins, born April 9, 1896, died April 21, 1954; Perry C. Bevins, born Dec. 21, 1897, died August 27, 1959, in Miami, Florida; Jesse Bevins, born Nov. 3, 1899.

George (Bud) Bevins, now 77 years of age and living at Millard, is the historian of the "River Bevinses." He owns the old account book of his grandfather, James, and other valuable records of a historical and genealogical nature. To his and our great regret, many of his records were lost in the flood of 1957.

George Bevins was twice married; first to Stella Justice, second to Lucinda Justice. He is a veteran of World War I, serving in Europe. He was still in Europe in 1919 when President Woodrow Wilson came to Paris to help write the peace treaty.

In his early manhood, George was a timberman. He went down the river to Catlettsburg with the rafts of Timber, beginning in 1908 when he was 18 years old. He was still going down the river on rafts in 1916 when the Army beckoned. Imbued with the history and traditions of his people, he is highly competent to discuss the past for he has lived more than three-quarters of a century and seen the transition of the region from those primitive years of the last century to the modern decades of the present.

NOBLETT FAMILY

One family with descendants in the Big Sandy valley about which has been much conjecture as well as research is the Noblett family. Joseph Bevins, early Pike County settler, born in Belfast, Ireland in 1751, came to America and married Annie Noblett, according to family records. Some of the early historians of the family stated that Joseph and Annie were born in Ireland but later research proves that they were probably married in Virginia or North Carolina.

Harold E. Bumgardner, 6360 West 14th St., Indianapolis, Ind., a student of the Noblett family writes: (Continued next page)

"I find that John, Francis, Richard and William Noblett came from Ireland with the Irish immigration prior to 1729. They were descendents of the Hughnots and settled in Chester County, Pennsylvania. The coat of arms of Jaques de Noblette of Tersillac, knighted in 1550, is given in the book, Noblett Genealogy.

"The Genealogical Collection, by Hyndman Noblett gives the following information, page 311: Thomas and Mary Noblett of Pennsylvania, Delaware, North Carolina, and Virginia, had sons: Abraham, David, John, Isaac, and Jacob. Jacob, the youngest son, was born Sept. 15, 1781. Thomas was a Revolutionary War soldier. Thomas Noblett, second son of John and Ann Noblett, was in the French and Indian War in 1756. . . He moved from York County, Pennsylvania in 1760 to Delaware, then went south to North Carolina, thence to Grayson County, Virginia. He died in Grayson County, one record says in 1818, another in 1822."

"I have found that a David Noblett was the father of Margaret Noblett, my great-great-grandmother. Margaret was born in Virginia in 1812. Her sister, Martha, was born in White County, Tennessee. Margaret told stories of hoeing corn in Cane Hollow when she was a girl. There is a Cane Creek in White County, Tennessee. Margaret married Allen, a son of Aaron Pinson (of Pike County, Ky.) who took land about two miles north of Paris, Illinois, in Edgar County. Allen's brother, Jeremiah, married Martha Noblett. Margaret's sister . . . David Noblett and his sons, Thomas and Francis, bought land from the Vincennes Land Office. This land was in Clinton Township, Vermillion County, Indiana. It was about a mile from the Illinois state line and located next to the land that Allen Pinson bought. David bought his land March 23, 1836. David died in the 1850's. Most of the Nobletts and some of the Pinsons had gone to Missouri by 1855." (To be continued)

PART II

(This series of articles, by Henry P. Scalf, are from APPALACHIAN NOTEBOOK, a column in the Pike County News, Pikeville, Kentucky)

THOMAS BEVINS

Thomas Bevins (1788-1847), son of Joseph Bevins, Sr., the immigrant, first married Elizabeth Porter (1789-1833), daughter of Samuel Porter. As stated in the preceding article on this family, they were parents of 15 children. These were:

Lucinda Bevins, born September 13, 1808, married John Keesee in 1824; Delilah Bevins, born April 2, 1810, married Thomas Canada 1829; Joseph Bevins, born February 24, 1812, married Mary Williamson, 1832, and died January 1, 1890; Annie Bevins, born March 13, 1813, married Hammond Williamson, 1830; Thomas J. Bevins, born January 12, 1813, married Elizabeth Williamson, 1833; James Bevins, born March 16, 1817, married Mary Pinson, 1836; Polly (Mary) born March 10, 1819, married Ambrose Morris, 1837; Elizabeth Bevins, born January 23, 1821, married James M. Stepp, 1837.

Melinda Bevins, born Oct. 24, 1822, married Richard Staton, 1852; Sarah Pinson, born July 5, 1824, married George W. Pinson, 1840, and died in June 1887; John Pinson, born June 9, 1826, died in youth; A. Jackson Bevins, born November 9, 1828, married Nellie Hunt; J. Madison Bevins born June 20, 1830, married Nancy Smith; George Washington Bevins, born May 24, 1833, married first Nancy Williamson, second Sallie Hunt; Lucretia Bevins, born May 24, 1833 (twin to Geo. Washington Bevins), married Henry Smith. Lucinda, Delilah, Joseph, Annie, Thomas J., James, Polly, and Elizabeth were born near Sidney, Kentucky, on Big Creek, Pike County.

Following the death of Elizabeth Porter Bevins, Thomas married Lydia Ratliff. According to the 1850 Pike County Census, she was born in 1798. Four children were born to this union: William Robinson Bevins, born 1836 at Bevins Branch on Johns Creek, died in the Civil War; Meriba Bevins, born 1838; Richard Price Bevins, born 1840 married Clarinda Keene; Lydia Jane Bevins, born 1842, married Harvey Scott, October 30, 1859.

2. John Bevins, born 1786, son of Joseph, the Irish Immigrant, married first Mary Jane Stacy, born 1790. They were parents of 11 children. The ages given here have been deduced from the 1850 Pike County Census.

George Bevins, born 1808, married Nancy Williamson, daughter of John Williamson, 1829; James Bevins, born 1809, married Elizabeth Justice, daughter of Peyton Justice, Sr.; Mary (Polly) Bevins, born 1813, married Pharmer Leslie; Annie Bevins, born 1815, married John Williamson, Jr.; Hiram K. Bevins, born 1817, married Luna Leslie, sister to Pharmer; Martha or Patty, married John Deskins; Rebecca Bevins, born 1823, married George Stump; 3. Jemima Bevins, born 1825, married John Williams; Louisa Bevins, born 1828 died unmarried; Elizabeth Bevins, married Absalom Hurt; Jefferson Bevins, born 1831.

John Bevins married, second, Nancy Ratliff, a native of Montgomery County, Virginia.

George Bevins and Nancy Williamson Bevins (born 1803 at the mouth of Shelby Creek, Pike County) lived at the mouth of Rockhouse Fork of Big Creek, Pike County. He was a large landowner. Six children were born to this union; James, born 1830, married, first Susan Walker, second Mary Harris; Kenis Bevins, died single in the Civil War; Dallas Bevins married, first, Sarah Ann Taylor, second, Vicie Gaines;⁴ Mary Ann Bevins, married, first Rueben Reed, second Levy Scalf;⁵ Rebecca Bevins, married Cain Walker; ⁶ Louisa Bevins, married Jesse Burchett.

John Williamson, Jr., born November 1, 1811 and Annie Bevins, born January 11, 1811, resided at the mouth of Lawson Branch of Johns Creek. They are buried in the nearby Williamson cemetery. They had only two children: Hiram J. Williamson, born December 17, 1835, died January 7, 1851; Polly Williamson born July 1, 1841, married James Mont Lawson, of Logan County, West Virginia. They lived at the mouth of Lawson Branch. James Mont Lawson was born 1835, died 1881, at Jacksonville, Fla. His wife died May 18, 1918. Both are buried at the Lawson cemetery near where they resided most of their lives.

Thomas Bevins, Jr., and Elizabeth Williamson were married in 1813.¹⁸³³ They lived on Big Creek, Pike County. Issue of this marriage were the following:

Lydia Bevins, married John C. Smith and resided on Road Fork of Big Creek; Lucinda Bevins, married Henry Blackburn; James M. Bevins, married Jemima Stacy; Nancy Bevins, married Aly Farley, lived on Pond Creek; Hiram Bevins, married Nettie Blackburn; Pricy Bevins, married John Farley; Hibbard Bevins, never married.

Part IVTHE BEVINS (BEAVENS-BEVANS) FAMILY INDIAN MASSACRE

The Bevins (Beavans-Bevans) family seems to have been settled in Colonial America long before Joseph Bevins, progenitor of the Eastern Kentucky family migrated to America from Belfast, Ireland. At hand is a list of Capt. Thomas. Shirgls' Company of Colonial Militia of 1848, presumably of Maryland, which includes Cornelias, Beavens, lieutenant, and privates Roling Beavens and Thomas Beavens. The names would not be of interest to us except for the massacre of the Bevans (note spelling) family of what is now Northern West Virginia.

The Cornelias Beavens mentioned as lieutenant in the colonial militia in 1748 may have been the father of the Bevans family murdered by Indians in 1787 in the present Marshall County, W. Va. One son of the murdered was a Cornelius Bevans. This similarity of names tends to make us believe that the father of those murdered may have been named Cornelius.

We are indebted to History of Marshall County, W. Va., author not named, for the following pages, 36-37:

"Harry Clark was one of the early settlers in what is now Union District. His farm was on the ridge back of the upper end of Grave Creek Narrows. In time of danger he removed his family to Wheeling, and was one of the defenders of the fort in the attack commenced on the eleventh of September, 1782.

"A few years after this siege, there was quite a large settlement on the ridge between Big Wheeling Creek and the waters of Little Grave Creek. It was thought advisable to build a block-house on that ridge and provide a place of safety nearer their homes than Wheeling. A block-house was erected on a ridge near the site of the Pleasant Hill Church at the village of Sherrard. The fortification was called Clark's Blockhouse in honor of the promoter. It consisted of four cabins arranged that when enclosed with pickets twelve feet high was quite strong.

"In time of danger the settlers of the neighborhood gathered at the block-house. There were few summers for some years that depredations committed by Indians did not cause the settlers to seek the protection of the little fortification.

"In the year 1787 Indians were quite bad as there were an unusual number of small scalping parties prowling through the forest committing depredations upon the settlers. A family by name of Bevans had settled on the ridge about a mile from the fort. The family consisted of the parents, two sons and two daughters. One of the daughters was married to a man by the name of James Anderson, who was at the fort that summer with the Bevans family.

"One day that summer the two girls and the two boys of the family went to their farm to pull flax. As there had been no signs of Indians for some time they never thought of danger. They reached the field and were sitting on the fence looking at the flax when they were startled by the report of rifles and John, the oldest boy, was shot through the body. He started for the block-house as fast as he could run with an Indian after him. He kept ahead of the Indians until within sight of it when he fell dead. The Indian had given up pursuit when he saw him fall but he proceeded to tomahawk and scalp him.

"Cornelius, the younger boy, ran in a different direction and in going down a hill he jumped over the trunk of a fallen tree and hid in the brush at the top of it and escaped. The two girls were tomahawked and scalped at the place where they were attacked. They were buried in one grave where they fell.

"One account states that James Anderson, the husband of one of the murdered girls was murdered at the same time, having accompanied his wife to assist in the work, but it is a matter of uncertainty as there are conflicting statements concerning the attack upon the children at the field." (END)

As a family on the 1850 census of Pike Co Ky. The first 4 children are mentioned with Jefferson being 2 months old. They have John as a Farmer and the farm is worth 300.00 pg 483 714/714. He is living between Achillia/Nancy Williamson and Joseph /Mary Bevins. There is a Andrew /Elizabeth Collins that is his neighbor in 1850 and 1860.

As a family he is on the 1860 census with his wife Jemmima and there 6 children. He is a farmer and the value of his personal property is 1000.00. He was hom 395 family 391 visited. Living between Achillas Williams and Henderson Austin. William M Williamson, 75 and Mary, 68 (parents?) live in family 394/389.page 87

They were shown on the 1870 census for Lawrence Co Ky Page 10 They were the 58th house and family. There is no wife mentioned It also states that they were all born in Kentucky There was no James H mentioned.

His neighbors were James/Evaline Hammond and Mark/Lucey Maynard

Abt death date on Jamima

On the death date it came from PD Bevins. He stated the date March 2, 1904 in Pike Co KY came from the book Pike County Deaths 1849-1909 by Dorcas M. Hobbs and John W. Piklesimes copyrighted 1998 listed on page 90. He also lists parents as James and Malinda Stacy. Which she was a Bevins. Wondering if this is Grandparents.

On Bevin family

John was a farmer. In 1807 he preempted a large tract of land on Raccoon Creek. His home was near the site of the present John's Creek Grade School. John Bevins was very instrumental in the formation of Pike County. Pike County was formed from a part of Floyd County in 1821. This act of the general Assembly was enacted in the administration of Governor Jaoh Adair, December 19, 1821.

John Bevins was appointed as one of the original Pike County Magistrates. The other four were Simeon Justice, James Roberts, Rueben Rutherford, and John Hunt.

The first court was held March 4, 1822, at the home of Spencer Adkins near the junction of the Levisa and Russell Forks of the Big Sandy River. The first temporary county seat was called Liberty, near the forks also, on the land of Peton Justice.

On December 24, 1823, a permanent county seat was established. The site would be at Peach Orchard Bottom, opposite the mouth of Chloe Creek on land donated by Elijah Adkins. The permanent sit was to be called Pikeville.

During the May court of 1824, John Bevins, Thomas May, and William Ferguson were appointed as commissioners on the project of building the first court house at Pikeville. The commissioners together agreed that the court house would be hewed logs, 24 ft. square. The edges of the logs to be straightened and chinked with stone and lime. To be a cotory and a half high covered with shingles. The Lower floor to be laid with plank. Half over the upper floor with plank. A good pair of stairs to be run. A seat for the judge to sit on and a bar for the Lawyers. Doors and windows to be in said house.

John Bevins was app[ointed by the assistant to the Marshall of the district of Kentucky to do the first census of Pike County. The first census was done in cursive form.

John Bevins is also thought to be buried on the hill opposite John's Creek Grade School.

NOTE FROM ME

One of the things that has me is that Jeff. and Locinda were married in 1880 but both of them came to the marriage with children. Locinda had a daughter born 2873 (Locinda had not been married) and Jefferson had 2 boys that I take as his. a Thomas born 1872 and a Benjamin bore 1874 Have not been able to find anything on Jeff after the 1870 Lawrence co census. Or anything else about his siblings. My grandfather really didn't know much about him. So I really dont know if he left the family or died.

Governor Will Speak At Reunion on Sep. 17

Joseph Bevins, 1st of His Clan,
Settled on Levisa 200 Years Ago

In 1763 in Ireland, there was born a son to a family by the name of Bevins and he was given the name, Joseph; now nearly two centuries later, the descendants of Joseph are planning to hold a reunion at the Bevins School on Big Creek, Pike County KY with no less a personage than the governor of Kentucky as speaker for the occasion.

The reunion of the Bevins families, their relatives and friends will be held on Sep 17th at the Bevins school with the program scheduled to get underway at 10:30 A.M. Governor Bert Combs is expected to speak. The day also will feature vocal music, string music, introductions of visitors and dinner on the school grounds. A program and entertainment will follow.

Joseph Bevins, who became the first of his clan to settle in Pike County, KY was but seven years old when he crossed the Atlantic Ocean with his parents in 1770 - five years before the United States won its Independence from England and settled in Philadelphia, soon thereafter they descended the Shenandoah Valley of VA and settled in Scott County, near where Gates City, VA is now located.

According to R.T. Farley, well known citizen of Hardy, KY and related to the Bevins Family, the first Joseph Bevins grew to manhood in Scott County VA and married Mary Ann Noblett, also of Irish descent.

Farley said the history of the Bevins Family which has had an estimated 100,000 or more descendants from the Irish stock, has been carefully compiled and he gave the following account of Joseph and some of his immediate descendants:

"In 1803 Joseph moved to a part of Floyd County KY which 19 years later became Pike County. He first settled near the forks of Levisa River and there are many descendants who now live in that vicinity.

Some time later Joseph moved to the mouth of Coon Creek and there obtained a vast number of acres of land, which later came into the hands of his eldest son, John, who married Mary Jane Stacy. Joseph is buried on John's Creek, near the mouth of Coon Creek.

Joseph had five sons and no daughters. His sons were: John born in 1786; Thomas born in 1788; Joseph Jr. born in 1790; James born in 1792, and George born in 1794.

George Bevins, at an early age, traveled to Lawrence County KY and settled on George's Creek, which was named in his honor. Thomas and Elizabeth have lived or now living on John's Creek and Big Creek.

Some of the early families that married into the Bevins family included: Canada, Williamson, Stepp, Pinson, Williams, Runyons, Blackburn, Scott, Justice, Farley, Bogar, Varney, Staton, and many others. Now the Bevins is blood mixed with hundreds of Pike County Families and has reached into many other counties and states. They are almost as numerous as the sands of the sea.

To give some idea of the descendants of Joseph and Mary Ann Bevins, let's use the James Bevins family as an average of other families. He moved to the state of OK where he lived and died. His grandson, Clarence R. Bevins, gave me a complete record of James' family in 1955; there were 264 descendants. Using this average, it is estimated that there are over 100,000 descendants of the Irish clan.

Decendants Of Carl Bevins, born August 12, 1903

About Our Family Research

My name is Judy Fay Bevins Nethery. My grandfather is Carl Bevins. His parents are Alonzo Bevins b.Oct. 9,1877 and Minnie Jackson b. in Logan West Virginia.

Our clan starts with Joseph Bevins who married Mary Noblett. It is said that Joseph came to America at about age seven with his parents and two other brothers in the seventeenth century.

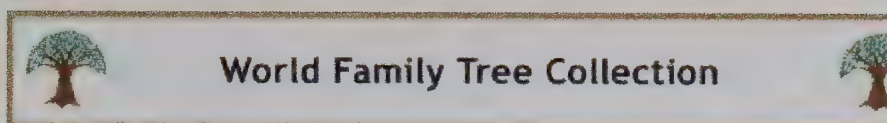

I have worked on the Bevins' genealogy for 17 years or so and came to a halt when I gave all my memos to a cousin who is still trying to put it all together. We had several contacts from Pikeville where I was born. We are related to the Justice and Blackburns etc. I just want to say thank you all for the letters and interest.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Joseph BEVINS was born about 1751 in County Antrim (Ulster) Belfast, Ireland.^{(1) (2)(3)} He died in 1824 in Lawrence, KY.^{(4) (3)} He was buried in Will Ford Farm.⁽⁵⁾ Members of the Bevins family have been in America since colonial days. Joseph Bevins was born in Belfast, Ireland in 1751. His family had the honorable occupation of linen weavers. Most early genealogists say the family came to America in 1770. His port of entry was probaably Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Soon after coming to America, the family migrated south by way of the Shenandoah Valley.

Joseph Bevins and his family lived in what would later be Scott County, near Osborn's Ford. Scott County was formed from parts of Washington, Russel, and Lee Counties in Virginia. The Leslie Genealogy says Joseph was instrumental in the Revolutionary War.

Near 1785, Joseph Bevins met Anna Knoblett. A courtship developed, which let to marriage a few months later. They were probably married in Virginia. The Knoblett Family was of French Huguenots descent. Anna Knoblett was the daughter of Thomas Knoblett and Mary King. Records of the Knoblett family can be found in Pennsylvania, Delaware, North Carolina, and Virginia. By 1855, many of the Knoblett family had moved to Missouri.

When Joseph came into Floyd County, he spent a brief period of time near Millard before moving to John's Creek. Three of Joseph's children came to the Big Sandy Valley with Him. John, Thomas, and George settled in Eastern Kentucky. Georg's Creek, south of Louisa, is named for George Bevins. Joseph Jr., James and Rebecca stayed in Virginia. The latter three probably have descendants in many other parts of America.

Tradition has it that Joseph Bevins was buried at the mouth of Raccoon Creek. If this is true, he is probably buried behind the Ford Cemetery, opposite John's Creek Grade School. U.S. 119 splits the old Bevins Farm. His wife was probably buried in the same area. Another very old graveyard was located on Taylor Hill.

Some genealogists believe Joseph to be buried on George's Creek, near Louisa, where one of his sons settled.

When Bert Combs was governor, he attended a Bevins reunion at the Bevins School. By 1993, Joseph Bevins may have as many as 250,000 descendants in different parts of the country. The name has bee carried eleven generations in my immediate family.

The name Bevins in Norman or Old English was used as a nickname for a wine drinker.

He was married to Mary Ann NOBLETT (daughter of Thomas NOBLETT and Mary KING) about 1783.^{(6) (7)(8)} Mary Ann NOBLETT was born about 1765 in Newberry, Lancaster Co. PA.⁽³⁾⁽⁹⁾ She died about 1812 in KY.⁽⁹⁾ She was also known as Annie.⁽⁵⁾ Joseph BEVINS and Mary Ann NOBLETT had the following children:

Conclusion

I don't have much of this world's goods to leave behind. I pray I will leave a heritage of love, to all my family and friends.

This has been hard for me to write. My writing isn't very good. I pray all who get a copy will take care of it. You will have it when I'm gone.

May God watch over each of you.

JOSEPH BEVINS, SR. #1

Progenitor of all of "Bevins" blood in Scott County, Va., and the Big Sandy Valley of Eastern Kentucky. Born about 1751, presumably in Ireland. Died in Lawrence County, Kentucky about 1824. According to tradition, he emigrated to America from Belfast, Ireland just before the Revolution, and immediately took part in the struggle for independence.

re

As there are no early written records, there is disagreement among the descendants of Joseph Bevins, the emigrant, as to early family history. Some state that he married Mary Ann Noblitt about 1784 in Virginia. Parentage, dates of birth and death and places are unknown. (It seems fairly certain that Mary Ann Noblitt Bevins died before the Bevins Clan migrated to Eastern Kentucky.) According to tradition, Joseph and Mary Ann settled on Big Moccasin Creek, near Osborne Ford (now Dungannon, in present Scott County, and that Joseph moved to Floyd County, Ky. with some of his family about 1803.

About 1807, Joseph obtained a vast number of acres of land above the mouth of Raccoon Creek, on Johns Creek. Later he moved to Lawrence County, then also a part of Floyd, where he lived with his 2nd or 3rd wife, and their son David. This is also disputed by some of the family. From census records, etc, it appears that Joseph did not move to Kentucky before 1810. (According to Aunt "Oney" Walker Williamson he did not move to Kentucky until 1812.

No record was found of service in the Revolution by a Joseph Bevins in Virginia. However, North Carolina records show a Joseph Bevins serving during 1781 and 1782.

(See "Some Old Family Ties" and "Gleanings from the Distant Past" by Ernest L. Walker, pages under "Family of Joseph Bevins and "Down the Centuries with the Noblitts"

MARY ANN NOBLITT #1

The names De Noblette, Noblette, Noblet, Knoblett, etc, show up in history as far back as 1180. Many nobles, and some of them were Huguenots, to escape persecution emigrated to England, Ireland and Holland. The first Noblitts of record, in America, consisted of four brothers: John, Richard, Francis and William, of Irish stock descended from Huguenots, who escaped from France. The earliest record of the four brothers in America is:

1729, John on tax list, Chester County, Newton Township, Pa.

1732, William, Middletown Township.

1734, Richard on Ashton Township rolls.

Francis shown as witness to a will.

Very little is known of Richard and Francis. They probably never left Pennsylvania.

John Noblitt believed to have been born in the late 1600's, came from Ireland with the Irish Quakers, or Friends as an emigrant settler. He was a taxable citizen of Newton Township, Chester County from 1729 to 1735. He married Anne _____, and they joined in the membership with the Society of Friends of Newton Meeting 2-18-1737, and removed the same year to the new settlement of Newberry, York County (formerly Lancaster), Pa. John died intestate in 1748, and Letters of Administration was granted Anne at Lancaster on 10-4-1748. Anne, widow of John, married John Brown. The seven children of John and Anne Noblitt were:

Abraham Noblitt
Thomas Noblitt
William Noblitt
John Noblitt
Sarah Noblitt
Francis Noblitt
Mary Noblitt

Thomas Noblitt, 2nd son of John and Anne Noblitt, married Mary King in Pennsylvania, and is thought to be the father of Mary Ann Noblitt, wife of Joseph Bevins, Sr., first Bevins emigrant to America. Thomas enlisted in the French & Indian War 1756 and served with General Wolfe at the Battle of Quebec. He moved to York and to North Carolina, then to Grayson County, Virginia, where he was living in 1822. Colonial Research Bureau, Washington, D. C., says he died in Grayson County, Va. in 1818. His children were listed there as: Abraham, David, John, Isaac and Jacob. No mention of daughters.

Section IV

Walter Stallard & Elizabeth Carter- Mary (Polly) Bevins

Compiled by Margaret Russell Stallard

WALTER STALLARD, son of Samuel and Jael Duncan Stallard, was born ca 1775 probably in Culpeper Co., Va. and was brought as a young child by his parents to Washington County, now Scott Co., Va. near the present Dungannon, Va. Walter raised his family near there, died 28 April 1834 and is buried at the Stallard Memorial Marker which was erected near Dungannon, Va. by Stallard descendants in 1936.

Walter Stallard m Elizabeth Carter b ca 1780, Walter d 10 Jan 1826 and is resting by his father's side near the Stallard Memorial Marker. Their son Dr. Samuel Carter stated his mother was the dau of Norris Carter and Agnes Taylor Carter. The will of Norris Carter does not name Elizabeth Carter but refers to "his several children" and his wife Agnes. Walter and Elizabeth Carter Stallard named their first daughter Agnes which would also indicate she was the dau of Norris and Agnes Carter.

Walter Stallard m 2nd Mary (Polly) Bevins 21 Dec 1826 in Scott Co., Va. See Bevins family sketch for information concerning Mary Bevins.

Children of Walter Stallard by his first wife, Elizabeth Carter, b ca 1780; d 10 Jan 1826

1. James Stallard b 1809 d 1890; m 13 April 1840 Christiana Powers, usually called Crissy Beckley.
2. Charles Stallard b 14 April 1811 d April 1894; m Lucy Smith b 1829.
3. Jaelia M. Stallard b 27 March 1812 d 17 Dec 1894; m 1st William B. Powers m 2nd John Dingus.
4. Agnes Stallard b 16 Sept 1813 d 21 Oct 1879; m 15 Jan 1827 Bird (Byrd) Franklin.
5. Lucy Stallard; m 29 July 1837 William Starnes.
6. Mary (Polly) Stallard; m 22 June 1835 William P. Taylor.
7. John W. Stallard b 1823 d 1887; m Emma (last name unknown).
8. Dr. Samuel Carter Stallard b 14 May 1823 d 19 Feb 1898; m Rebecca Flanary.
9. Allen R. Stallard; no record of marriage.

Children of Walter Stallard by his second wife, Mary (Polly) Bevins:

10. Joseph Stallard (twin); m Virginia Ramsey.
11. Elizabeth Stallard (twin); m Benjamin Salyer.
12. William Wilson Stallard; nm

We have not been able to find a will of Walter Stallard but a copy of the inventory of his personal estate indicates he was a man of comfortable means for his day. His land was considerable and we find court records of settlement and chancery from 1845 thru 1860 in Scott County, Va.

The ages of some of his children are determined from various family records and U.S. Census records of 1850. We have not been able to establish a birth date for his daughter Lucy who was over 21 in 1837 as recorded in records of chancery and we have not been able to establish a birth date for Allen who was under 21 in 1837 altho various court records place him between Samuel Carter and Joseph.

Walter Stallard bought land from John Bays - Scott Co., Va. Bk 4 page 228.

In 1813 - Book 4, page 434 - Plaintiff Index to County Court Law Order Books 1786-1904 - Russell Co., Va. Walter Stallard was appointed Surveyor of road from the Ford of Clinch River to Stanton's Creek.

The parcel of land mentioned in the following document was to Walter from his father and his step-mother Dicie Stallard.

Conclusion

I don't have much of this world's goods to leave behind. I pray I will leave a heritage of love, to all my family and friends.

This has been hard for me to write. My writing isn't very good. I pray all who get a copy will take care of it. You will have it when I'm gone.

May God watch over each of you.

Search of the files reveals a September 27, 1963, copy of the Ashland (Ky.) Daily Independent with an article, "The Bevins Fifth Annual Homecoming," by G. C. Ratliff.

Ratliff quotes Pike county Superintendent of Schools, C. H. Farley, who read a brief history of the Bevins family at the reunion.

"The history begins with Joseph Bevins, of Belfast, Ireland, in 1763. Joseph's parents crossed the Atlantic in 1770, coming to Philadelphia. But soon the Bevins family migrated down the Shenandoah valley of Virginia and settled at Osborne's Ford, near Gate City, in Scott county, Virginia.

"At Osborne's Ford, Joseph grew into manhood and married Mary Annie Noblett, who was also Irish. In 1803 Joseph and perhaps his parents also, moved to Big Sandy and it is believed that he first settled on the Levisa Fork of the river near what is now Millard, 12 miles south of Pikeville. That was Floyd county then.

"No one appears to know the date when Joseph and Mary Annie left the river, traveled up Ratliff's Creek, a short distance below Pikeville, crossed over the low hill into the Burning Fork of Raccoon, down that fork to Johns Creek. But it is certain that it was after 1803.

"Nine miles east of Pikeville, in the beautiful valley of Johns Creek, Joseph made his home. The land where he settled is now the Will Ford farm, which the Pikeville-Williamson highway, U. S. 119, splits in two.

"Joseph died in 1824 at the age of 61. He was buried on a hill overlooking the Ford farm.

"At the Sunday gathering it was proposed that the Bevins family erect a marker at the grave.

"From Joseph and Annie was proposed that the Bevins family erect a marker at the grave.

"From Joseph and Annie came five sons but no daughters. They were John, 1786; Thomas, 1788; Joseph, Jr., 1790; James, 1792; and George, born about 1794. George later migrated to Lawrence county and settled on the creek that bears his name.

John, the eldest son, fell into possession of the old home. He married Mary Jane Stacy. Thomas married Elizabeth Porter, the first time and Lidia Ratliff, second. James married Molly Pinson.

Thomas Bevins was one of the first magistrates to serve in Pike county after its creation in 1821.

"The first marriage he solemnized was that of Eli Hatfield and Anna Evans, September 20, 1827."

There is a discrepancy in the 1888 story and "Lesley-Leshe, 200 Years In America," by Ruth Green, Little. On page 339, Miss Lesley-Leshe wrote that Joseph Bevins was born in the Revolution. There is a discrepancy in the Bevins family that Joseph Bevins actually lived in the Revolution, but no one in the family seems to have done any research on the matter.

The Lesley-Bevins marital connection was made when Hiram Kilgore Bevins, youngest of the ten children of John and Mary Jane Stacy Bevins, were married December 10, 1835.

Bevins Family

A letter from Mrs.S.R. Bevins, Route 2, Concord, TN asks about the Bevins family of Eastern KY.

She writes:

"My husband was born in Scott County VA. His father, Phillip Wheeler Bevins, came from Russell County VA; he was the son of Rev. William Bevins, a Baptist minister. That is as far back as we can go. We have learned that there were several Bevins in Pike County, KY and we have wondered if perhaps they came originally from the same clan that settled in Southwest VA.

They are the only people who spell the name exactly as we do. In this area there are Bevans,Bivins,Bivens and Blevins but none except our particular family who spell it Bevins.

Do you know where the KY Bevins came from originally? Someone told us that originally the name was "Bevin" without the "s". Do you know whether any Bevins were Rev soldiers?

Zandra,

If your copy of the Daniel Gannon and Orpha Williams marriage license could be misread "sister" as quoted in the "Annals Of Floyd Co." but could also be "brother" you are probably right. I don't have a copy, only the book. As to why the titles Capt. and Col. I can't find anything definitive in the material I have. I do have a copy of a letter from a Belfry, KY resident which states that WW was "a captain in the militia." No proof.

In the back of the book "Pioneer Families Of Eastern and S. Eastern KY" there is a listing of Revolutionary War officers and soldiers who settled in eastern and s eastern KY. Under Perry Co. there is a William Williams listed as a private, NC line. That's the wrong time but the right area. An earlier relation, maybe?

Hi Zandra,

I received your package on the Gannon's and Williams' and was very, very happy to get it. It contained a wealth of information and answered a lot of questions for me. I want to thank you for sending it to me. However, I did not receive the obit of James Worth Gannon from "The Guilford Genealogist."

When you get time I would like a copy of the Gannon marriages of Pike County. I don't have any and would very much like to have a copy. I also would like to ask if you know where I could get a copy of the book "Annals of Floyd County, KY." I would very much like to have a copy as it also contains a lot of other surnames that I have been researching.

What line of Gannon's are you a descendant of? I go through William Sr.'s son Daniel. I have been trying to find information regarding William's marriage to Elizabeth and something on her line, but without much luck so far. As you mentioned with more of us researching perhaps we will come across something new. If I have any information that you might be interested in, please do not hesitate to let me know and I will be more than happy to send it to you.

Pat

Hello Zandra,

I have alot of information on the GANNONS. My connection is through Daniel GANNON born 5-11-1796 married Orpah WILLIAMS 3-06-1820 in Floyd County, Ky.

Jonathan GANNON born 3-28-1826 married Perlicia E. WILLIAMSON, 12-29-1859.

James Daniel GANNON born 12-1860 married Florence EPLING about 1884 ?. I need the information on where and when they got married and information on who are the parentsof Florence EPLING.

Perry Andrew GANNON born 1899 married Minnie CHARLES 1920 are my grandparents.

I am interested in all different branches of the families connecting the GANNONS. I am interested in any pictures of the GANNONS, WILLIAMS, WILLIAMSON, EPLING, CHARLES, THOMPSONS, CAINS, and HELVEYS.

Thanks VAALPEMA (Alice)

Surname: Gannon

I have some info regarding Daniel Gannon (I have Daniel's DOB as 5-11-1794), son of William Gannon and (?) Eliz Tramble. Daniel married Orpha Williams in Floyd Co, KY, 06 Mar 1820. Daniel would be my ggg grandfather. Through his daughter, Mary E. Gannon who married John F. Brown, who left Pike CO, KY in 1867, moving to IL. I have info that places William Gannon as a soldier in the US Army in July 1980 in NC. William died in IL in 1844. I'm not aware of Daniel's children other than Mary E. If I can be of help, let me know. Mark Brown, San Diego, CA

Zandra,
All I have on Daniel and Orpha are their birth and marriage dates.
Is James the father of Orpha? What is mothers name?
Anything you can give me will help.
Have information on Gannon side if you need it.
Elaine

DANIEL GANNON TAKEN BY DEATH

Respected Coal Grove Man Died Thurs- day.

After an illness extending over a period of two years, Daniel Gannon, 66, well known and highly respected Coal Grove citizen, died at his home early Thursday morning. The illness which finally culminated in the death of Mr. Gannon was the result of an injury which he sustained while working in the mine of the Alpha Portland Cement Company.

Mr. Gannon was employed as mine foreman at the Alpha plant for a great number of years and was very popular with officials of the company. He possessed a genial personality that won for him the esteem and respect of the community in which he lived.

Early in life Mr. Gannon was affiliated with the Coal Grove Baptist Church and regularly attended church services. He is survived by his wife and two brothers, Richard of Coal Grove and George of West Virginia.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Sugar Creek Baptist Church, with interment in the Sugar Creek cemetery under the direction of Bingaman and Jones.

We will call and get you and take you to Raceland for 50c. Phone 49 before 12:00

Joseph Gannon, aged 23, died at the Keller Hospital early this morning as the result of a kick in the eye last week while employed by the Iron-ton Transfer & Storage Co. at Rose-dale, W. Va., as teamster. Mr. Gan-non was brought to the hospital Saturday night in a very serious con-dition suffering from blood poison as a result of the kick, and his death at an early hour this morning was not unexpected.

The body was taken to the home of his brother, C. Gannon of south Ninth street. The funeral announce-ments will be announced later.

Mr. Gannon was a native of Iron-ton and was well known in the city. He was the son of James Cammons Gan-non Sr. His death this morning is the third tragedy of a series that in six months has wiped out a bright and happy family of newly wedded young people.

The first death came August 21, when the baby boy, Clyde, died. The second death occurred Oct. 24 when the wife died, a victim of typhoid fever, and the tragic death of the husband and father today marks the end of the family.

Have Exhibits From Several Local Growers

The State Apple Show conducted under the auspices and direction of the State Horticultural Society will be held in Cincinnati, November 17-24 inclusive and practically every county in the State will be represented. Lawrence county will have a number of exhibitors in the Show as several growers have already indicated their intention of making an exhibit. The Show will be held in Memorial Hall in Cincinnati and the State Society plans to make it the biggest and most successful one ever held. Among the growers who have already expressed themselves as sure of making exhibits are U. T. Cox, The Davidson Company, John B. Corns and George M. Corns.

The question that preforms in mind is this:

Will the gains made in and working conditions off enormous total of time and lost in these never-to-be-reman-days of work? That tion can only be answered the one great test of an omik system is applied—tl of depression.

A vignette of Life:

A stooped, heavy set man, snowy hair, ruddy face, blinks from behind his spectacles as he walks past the door of the Reform Club in London.

Once he ruled one of the world's greatest industries. A snap of his finger, a word, changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of people. But usually his golden pyramid of power had crumbled. His fortune vanished. His nation chased him.

Now, still comparatively young, although millions of others were ruined by the crash of the empire, he shuffles along in the seclusion of a London Club.

Less than 300 miles away from other men, tall, handsome, dark haired, with a withered appearance amid the blooms of the estate, alone for the most part of this Summer, occasionally acknowledging salutes of the pedestrians. Once he ruled the empire, and for a time was responsible by the world for the loss of 10,000,000 lives.

Both still wealthy, both still materially content, actually both outcasts from humanity and neither wanted in countries from whence they obtained their great power.

Money and material can never compensate for spiritual misery of social clam.

MRS. GANNON DEAD

The final summons to her heavenly reward was answered Saturday morning by Mrs. Prudence Gannon, of Coal Grove. She had been ill more than a year, with cancer of the stomach, and did not take to her bed until four months ago, when it was impossible for her to hold up any longer. The deceased lived at Hecla in the latter years of her life, and was married late about 40 years ago. They moved to Coal Grove in 1858, and have lived there ever since. Mrs. Gannon was a faithful member of the Hecla M. E. church, during her residence there and since moving to Coal Grove, was a regular attendant at the church services when ever her health permitted. She was a faithful loving wife and devoted mother and also a kind and considerate friend to all her acquaintances. A husband, three sons, William, who is foreman of the Ironton Lumber Co., Levi and Richard, and three daughters, Emma, Daisy and Pearl are left to mourn her loss. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Zion church, and will be conducted by Rev. Henry Webb. Interment will be at Woodland, under the direction of Bingham and Jones.

Will Guard American Rights—Additional Army News

Mt. Airy, Ga., on board the president's private car, March 10.—Now that the ban of secrecy as to the army movements has been lifted, the present plan of action for the army can be authentically stated as follows:

First—To stand ready to invade Mexico.

Second—To check the secessionary movement in lower California.

Third—To patrol the border and prevent filibustering.

Fourth—To serve as a threat against any destruction of any American property in Mexico.

Fifth—To engage in practice maneuvers for the benefit of army and navy department.

The army will remain in Texas "unless necessary cause for action arises" in which case the border line will cut no ice.

The only question remaining in doubt is what this army will consider "necessary cause for action." The crucial point in the trouble, viewing it from the standpoint of the United States, is lower California, where the revolutionary movement seems to be independent of

Perlecia Williamson Gannon,
Jonathan Gannon

My Grandmother's Brother

Jonathan Gannon was born about 1824 in Kentucky, a son of Daniel and Orpha (Williams) Gannon. Daniel and Orpha were married on March 6, 1820 in Floyd County, Kentucky. Orpha died March 13, 1855, age 62 years. Daniel Gannon died in 1877 at the age of 83 years.

Jonathan Gannon married Perlecia

"Lecia" Williamson, a daughter of Benjamin and Polly Smith Williamson, on December 29, 1859 in Pike County. They resided on Dix Fork of Big Creek of Upper Johns Creek. The 1870 Census lists their residence as being on Bent Branch and the 1880 gives Upper Johns Creek. The children of Jonathan and Perlecia (Williamson) Gannon were:

1. James D. Gannon, born about 1861, married Florence Gray;
2. Sarah A. "Sally" Gannon, born about 1864, married Andy Hankins;
3. Mary E. Gannon, born about 1865, died in 1876 age 11 years;
4. Perlina Gannon, born about 1866-67, married Jack Keene;
5. Jonathan Gannon, born about 1868-69, married Nancy Morris;
6. Matilda Gannon, born about 1870, died age 4 years;
7. Easter Gannon, born about 1876, married Ruben Rutherford;
8. Barnabas (William Barnabas?) Gannon, born about August 1879, married Vicy Rutherford; and
9. Sophia Gannon, born after 1880, married Columbus Philips.

Eastern Kentucky Families

Mr. Noble K. Littell, 1219 Kat-Cani Avenue, Sebring, Florida 33870 would like to exchange information on these families who resided in various counties in Eastern Kentucky. David Shepherd and his wife, Lucretia Hale; their son, Bryson (Brice?) H. Shepherd and his wife, Nancy Stone. She was a daughter of Enoch Stone. William Smith, born 1822, son of Thomas Smith; Elizabeth Ritchie, born 1824, daughter of Alexander Crockett Ritchie (or Ritchie) and his wife, Betsey C. Grigsby. Alexander C. Ritchie and Betsey Grigsby were married about 1804 in North Carolina. All of these families lived in the area of Eastern Kentucky that became Knott County. Knott County was formed in 1884 from Perry, Breathitt, Floyd and Letcher Counties. If you have any information on these families please write Mr. Littell.

Zandra,

Not sure I can be any help to you since you are as far along as I am. Most of what I have is from KY, too. I have some on Mary Gannon's parents; birth, marriage, death info and his Revolutionary War service and pension application. If you can add to that, wonderful!

I am from the line of Achilles Williams who married Nancy McCoy in Pike Co., KY.

Also working on Strattons, originally from VA, then KY, and on Finley or Findley, early in Wayne Co., W. VA. Any other "overlaps" here?

If I do find more will let you know.

Could Orpha Williams be a sister to you Williams?

My side of family is Daniel Gannon, all I have for Orpha is birth 1793 Ky.

Any thing you have would help.

Will sent information on Daniels side if you would like it.

Zandra I have a William Gannon who, according to court records fathered a bastard child names Allen SHockey in 1820. This same William was also was ordered by a court in Floyd Co KY to pay support to his former wife Elizabeth in a levy record dated 18 Nov 1821. My understanding is that this William had 3-4 children by Elizabeth. Your William is shown as married to Mary Ann Williamson on 17 Apr 1823. My William married a MArY Ann Wuson on 12 Apr 1823. If they are the same person, we will have an interesting tale. If this is the same person, he was prolific teenager and I would find another blood connection to my g.g.grandfather (Allen Shockey) on the paternal side. Looks like Pike and Floyd counties will be getting some correspondence from me. What documentation do you have for your William or his father?

Thanks for the Stacy info, but the only way I could go further with that is if she was a late child of George, Jr. of James or a child on one of their issue. Do you have any of theat information?

I can give you Job's date of birth and death. His father was John Dean but I don't know his mother. I have been trying to find who she was for years. If Peggy Gannon was born in 1804, she would have been just twelve years old when married. That seems pretty young.

Why was their marriage bond made by an Osborne? I thought perhaps she was a widow -- or else an 'orphan' with an Osborne her guardian.

Do you have all the sisters of Job? I have some but not all. I don't know if there were any brothers but don't think so. Not per the estate of John Dean in 1846.

Where are you on the Dean research?

It is understood that the three of you are descendants of the Revolutionary War soldier William Gannon and it is hoped that you can help me.

I, too, am a descendant of William GANNON and am seeking proof that his son Daniel GANNON, who married Orpha WILLIAMS, was the father of Barnabas GANNON.

My full name is Ross Jerden DONALDSON;

my father was Walter DONALDSON who married Ida Ann JERDEN;

his father was John William DONALDSON, (called Vinegar John) who married Isabella GANNON, (called Isabel and Belle);

her father was Barnabas GANNON-^{B. 1822} who married Elizabeth Ann KING on 18 May 1843 in Pike County, Kentucky;

his father was Daniel GANNON-^{B. 1800} who married Orpha WILLIAMS on 6 March 1820 in Floyd County, Kentucky, by James RONAKER, J.P.;

his father was William GANNON who married Elizabeth "Betty" TRAMBLE.

Barnabas GANNON was born in Pike County, Kentucky, perhaps on Johns Creek, in the year 1822; he married Elizabeth Ann KING in Pike County, Kentucky, on 18 May 1843; and he died in Fayette County, Illinois, on 6 September 1883.

Daniel GANNON was born in North Carolina on 11 May 1794; he married Orpha WILLIAMS on 6 March 1820 in Floyd County, Kentucky; and he died 29 November 1877, presumably in Pike County, Kentucky. Does anyone know where he is buried?

Daniel GANNON was a son of the Revolutionary War soldier William GANNON, Sr., who resided in Floyd County, Kentucky, from about 1826 to about 1832, having moved there from Rockingham County, North Carolina, where he had resided for 30 years. It is not known when William GANNON, Sr., may have left Pike County, Kentucky, but he and his wife Elizabeth are both buried in the Old Baptist Cemetery, Elbridge Township, Edgar County, Illinois, very near the Indiana state line. Also buried in the same lot is another Elizabeth GANNON whose connection with the GANNON family is not yet known. This second Elizabeth GANNON died on 12 September 1874 at the age of 70 years. William GANNON, Sr., died 27 October 1844 and his wife Elizabeth died 5 October 1845.

Can you tell me anything about William GANNON, Junior? I have information that a William GANNON married (1) Mary Ann WUSON on 17 April 1825 in Pike County, Kentucky, and (2) Eleanor TROGDON on 6 July 1847 in Edgar County, Illinois. I am assuming that this William GANNON was a son of William GANNON, Senior, the Revolutionary War soldier:

Your assistance in proving that Barnabas GANNON was a son of Daniel GANNON is earnestly solicited and will be greatly appreciated. If you are unable to help me but can suggest some avenue for me to pursue to obtain the needed proof, that, too, will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Ross J. Donaldson

Zandra, I have made a connection to a William Gannon whose son was Daniel Gannon b.1796...Daniel's granddaughter, Sarah Ann (d/o Johnathon Gannon & Perlicia Williamson) b.September 12, 1864 (I believe in Pike Co. KY) was my ggg grandmother. Let me know if there's a connection and if this is the same William Gannon you are researching as I'm currently at a dead end.

Hi Zandra!

I've also discovered I'm a descendant of William & Betty. I'm working on the line through their son Daniel (his son Johnathan's daughter Sarah Ann [b.1864, d.1950] who married a Hankins in Tazewell County, VA is my gg grandmother). I would be happy to exchange info if you'd like. Am also in touch with another descendant of William & Betty. I would be happy to put you in touch with her as well. Always glad to meet another cousin!

Hi Zandra,
Is the William Gannon that you are looking for, the one that was killed in the battle of Opequon at Winchester, Va. Sept. 19, 1864. And his brother Jesse was wounded at the battle of Fisher's Hill, Va. Sept. 22, 1864. They both were in the 126th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. William's granddaughter is my grandmother.
If this is the one your looking for, maybe we could be of some help to each other.

Sincerely

I am researching the Williams Line. I have been told that James Melvin Williams father was William Williams DOB 1828 Pike County Ky. His mother was Silva Sword DOB 1827 Pike county Ky. My info shows William's Parents as William and Mary Gannon no dates but born in North Carolina. Mary was born 1792. I think we have a match and would love to talk more. Please E-mail me.

Thanks for getting back to me so quickly. Working from William Gannon, Sr (born in Ireland 2-1-1758>10-27-1844) married, 1784 to Eliz "Betty" Tramble (1769>10-5-1845). Son: Daniel Gannon (5-11-1794>12-29-1877) married 3-6-1820 in KY to Orpha Williams (9-3-1793>10-27-1855). Daughter: Mary E. Gannon (4-26-1833>3-17-1912) married 12-17-1854, John F Brown (10-11-1832[NC]>1-4-1873). Son: Barnabus W. Brown (8-3-1870>1-12-1943) married Frances Burr >>> my father, James J. Brown. I have no knowledge of any siblings of Daniel, nor any children of Daniel other than Mary E. I have a copy of a statement by William Gannon from 28 September 1832, describing his service in the US Army from July 1780 and relinquishing any claims to pension or annuity. Any info you have on siblings of Daniel or other of his children would be great. Thanks again for getting back to me. Mark Brown

I have more info on some generation siblings. There is a question about Mary E. Gannon, she is shown in the Gannon family in the 1850 Pike Co, KY census, as if she is married (9-20-1849) to James Allison and has a one year old child, but the child is listed as a Gannon. Question if she is a Gannon. She later married John F. Brown on 12-17-1854, from where my family starts. I have no other information on the children of Daniel & Orpha. I have posted what I have as a GEDCOM file on Kindred Konnections under BROWN/BURR/GANNON, ETC. There is also a Land Grant for William Gannon in Floyd Co, KY, survey date 2-28-1822. Mary & Daniel moved from Pike Co, KY to Illinois in 1867. Lived in and around Fayette Co, IL where most of them are buried. Perhaps a sibling of Daniel is James Gannon, married Polly Ratcliff on 9-27-1815 in Floyd Co, KY. I have also found a William Gannon who married Eleanor Trogon on 7-6-1847 in Edgar Co, IL. Question, son of William Sr. Brother of Daniel. I have also run across Pike Co, KY marriages of GANNONS, Barnabus, Jonathan, Mary to Allison, Sarah and William, ranging from 1823 to 1859.

This is probably jumbled, but I hope you can understand it. Any info you can provide on Mary E. Gannon would be great, as well as info on Daniel, his sibs and parents, grandparents, etc.

Do you have your information posted on any server? If so, where?

Thanks for your help. If you think that I may have something of help to you, I'll be happy to share.

GANNON-WILLIAMS GENEALOGY

William Gannon Sr., a Revolutionary soldier, was born in Ireland on February 1, 1758, according to his pension papers and his tombstone. He was buried in Old Baptist Cemetery located in Elbridge Township, Edgar County, Illinois. It is located a few miles southeast of Vermillion, which is a small place a few miles from Paris, Illinois.

It says on his tombstone that he died October 27, 1844, and that he was 86 years of age; however, according to the date of his birth on his pension papers and date of death on the tombstone, he should have been 86 years, eight months and 26 days old.

His wife, Elizabeth (Betty) is buried beside him. Her maiden name was Trimble or Trammel. On William's DAR papers his wife's name is listed as Betty Trymble. Her stone shows she died October 5, 1845.

The graves and stones were checked out by Ralph Anderson "Curly" Carlock, his wife, Dorothy, and Ross and Beryl Donaldson, brothers. R.A.

"Curly" believed that was in November 1975. Dick Syck of Pike County and R.A. Anderson were both descendants of Daniel and Orpha Williams Gannon. They carried on an extensive correspondence.

William Gannon-Betty Trimble (Trammel)

(William Gannon was the emigrant and will be shown as No 1 in the genealogy.)

1. William Gannon, born February 1, 1758, died October 27, 1844, married Betty Trimble (Trammel). Betty was born 1860, died 1845.

2) Mary (Polly) Gannon, born 1792, died 1883, married William Williams;

2) Daniel Gannon, born 1794, died 1877, married in 1820 to Orpha Williams;

2) Peggy Gannon, born 1804, married June 13, 1816, to Job Dean in Pike County;

2) William Gannon Jr., married July 7, 1823, to Marion Williamson;

Two of the above Gannon children married into the Williams family (although we are not sure it was the same Williams family). This is principally a Williams genealogy, so from here we will follow the Williams line.

2. Daniel Gannon married Orpha Williams, March 6, 1820. William Gannon signed his bond. The bond was also signed by Caty Williams, the sister of Orpha. Caty stated: "She has nobody to git the application but me." So evidently she (Orpha) was not a sister to the William Williams who married Polly Gannon. (See Wells "Annals.")

So who was Orpha? We have never seen a genealogy that went further back than Orpha. If anyone has any other information about Orpha and Caty, please contact the writer. The above information is from "Annals of Floyd County" by Wells.

Children of Daniel Gannon and Orpha Williams Gannon:

3) Barnabus Gannon, born 1820, married Elizabeth King, May 18, 1843;

3) Jonathan Gannon, born 1827, married Perline Williamson;

3) Mary E. Gannon, born 1833, died 1912, married James Allison, October 8, 1849, married 2nd, John F. Brown, December 17, 1854;

3) Sara Ann Gannon, born 1835, died 1928, married Richard Syck;

3) Elizabeth Gannon, married Henderson Austin.

WILLIAMS GENEALOGY

Mary Polly Gannon-William Williams

(From here on we follow the line of Mary and William Williams, not attempting to trace the families of Peggy and William Gannon. William Williams will be No. 2 in this line. His father was James Williams, mother, Zelia Norman.)

Census records show that William Williams was born in North Carolina. We do not know the exact date when he came to Kentucky. He is on the 1823 tax list of Pike County. We have no marriage record for William and Mary Polly.

In the February term of Floyd County Court for 1817 is this statement: "William Williams proves settlement on vacant land in this county and ordered certified to the land office." So perhaps this is William. This is from Wells "Annals," page 114.

Children of Mary Polly Gannon

and William Williams:

3) Matilda, born 1813, married Allen Adkins, March 20, 1834, Pike County. Records;

3) James Trammel, born 1815, died 1884, married Paline (Pauline) Hensley, daughter of Nancy McGinnis, married September 29, 1836;

3) Elizabeth Williams, born 1819, died 1863, married George Stump, December 31, 1840;

3) John, born 1822, married Jennie (Jemma). See 1860 Census;

3) Achilles, born 1824, married Nancy McCoy, May 15, 1845, Pike County;

3) Jane, born 1825, married Louis Deskins, February 15, 1849, (Martha

4) Oliver, born 1847;

4) Martha, born 1850;

4) Martha Adkins married Perry Cline, September 3, 1868. Their children were:

5) J.S. Cline, married Rebecca Scott. Children, Grace, Octavia, Thelma, Genevieve and John Jr.;

5) Allan

5) Butler;

5) Rocksey;

5) Maud, married Will Yost;

5) Jake, married Amba Steele;

3) James Trammel Williams, born 1815, married Paline (Pauline) Hensley, September 26, 1836.

4) Victoria, born 1835, married Neil Johnson;

1867. 5) Cordelia A. Williams, born 1870;

5) James T. (Jim) Williams, born

1872; 5) Joseph L. Williams (Joe), born

1874; 5) Benjamin (Ben) Williams, born

1876.

When I was a small child we lived across the river from Pikeville. We crossed the river in a boat to get to town. Uncle Kill Williams lived at the top of the bank where we landed our boat. He wore a white beard and I thought that he was very old and that his daughter, Cordelia, and his sons, Jim, Joe and Ben were old, too. Actually they were just middle-aged but to me they seemed old.

WILLIAMS (continued from last week)

2) Mary Polly Gannon and William Williams.

3) James Trammel Williams (continued from last week).

4) Victoria Williams.

4) Gordon Williams.

4) William H. Williams.

4) Achilles McGinnis Williams.

4) Nancy.

4) James M. Williams.

3) Elizabeth Williams, born 1819, married George Stump, December 31, 1840.

4) James H. Stump, born 1841, died 1922, married Mary E. Bowling.

4) Mary Jane Stump, born 1843, died 1917, married James M. Thornbury.

4) Rhoda M. Stump, born 1846, married Dr. B.F. Kelly.

4) Clark T. Stump, born 1847, married Permely Reynolds.

4) Victoria Stump, born 1850, died young.

4) Polly Ann Stump, married Lewis Farley.

(George Stump came from Tazewell, Virginia, to Pike County, just before his marriage in 1840. He is buried in the Pikeville City Cemetery by the side of a nephew, L.D. Yost. A picture of George Stump accompanies this column.)

3) John Williams, born 1822, married Jemima Bevins. See 1860 Census of Pike County. Pike County Historical Papers No. II shows that on October 14, 1843, a John H. "Weson" married Jemima Bevins, daughter of John Bevins.

The 1850 census shows a John W. "Williamson," age 28, with wife, "Jennia," and children, Louisa, Martha, Orpha and Jefferson, living next door to Achilles Williams and Nancy McCoy Williams.

The 1860 census shows a John W. Williams and wife, Jemima with children as named above plus two more, Leonidas and George.

3) Achilles Williams, born July 24, 1724, married Nancy McCoy, May 15, 1845, in Pike County, File No. 857. Nancy is the daughter of Randolph McCoy. They are shown in the 1860 census with children: William Jasper, born 1848; Seiena G., born 1850; Elisa Ann, born 1852; Malinda Jane; Montaville, born 1856; and (Elisa) Dora, born 1859. They also had James McKinley, born 1864.

Some information about this family was furnished by Brenda Gooslin of Meta, Kentucky. See also Pike County Historical Papers No. IV, pages 60 through 86. James McKinley had many descendants.

3) Martha Jane Williams, born 1825, married Louis Deskins, February 15, 1849.

4) James M. Deskins, married Vacey Ooton.

4) John Deskins.

4) George Deskins, married Sarah Smith.

5) J.B. Deskins, children: Gladys, Gertrude, Edgar and Irene.

5) Dixie, married a Varney.

5) Bertha.

5) Bob Deskins.

5) Vent Deskins.

5) Annah Deskins, married Talmadge Jones.

5) Lula.

5) Matilda, married Fred Justice.

4) Ben, married a Hensley.

4) Mose, married a Varney.

4) Emma, died young.

4) Polly, died young.

4) Tilda, married Tom Goff.

3) William Williams Jr., born 1826, married Silvia (Sybil, Selby) R. Sword, March 30, 1848.

The 1850 Census of Pike County shows that William and Silvia had a child, Malinda J., age one. They are not shown in the 1860 census. The 1880 census shows William, age 52, and Silbey, age 52, with a daughter, Sara Belle, age 19. They are not shown in the 1900 census.

3) Mary Williams, born 1830, married James H. McGinnis, March 5, 1851, File No. 1177. Mary is shown in the 1850 census with her parents, William and Mary Williams. She is aged 20. Nothing further is found on Mary. She is not in the 1860 census.

More Williams genealogy, furnished by Brenda Gooslin of Meta:

Betty Trimble Gannon, born 1760, died 1835, from Rockingham County, North Carolina. Betty and William married 1780.

William Williams, born February 19, 1785, died October 15, 1862, born in Surry County, North Carolina. William was buried on Gannon Cemetery at Kimper, Kentucky, married Mary Gannon, October 22, 1810. Mrs. Gooslin does not know where they married.

Mary Polly Gannon, born 1792, Stokes County, North Carolina, died 1883, Pike County, Kentucky, buried on Barney Branch Cemetery, Kimper, Kentucky.

Old-Timer

Pictured above is George Stump, who came to Pike County from Tazewell, Virginia, just before his marriage to Elizabeth Williams, December 31, 1840. He is buried in the Pikeville City Cemetery by the side of a nephew, L.D. Yost. George and Elizabeth (Betsy) were the parents of Polly Ann Stump, wife of Lewis G. Farley. The original photograph belongs to Grayson and Augustine Phillips of Feds Creek, and was identified by descendant, Clyde Phillips of Florida.

WILLIAMS

Marie Justice sent this information on the Williams family—James Melvin Williams, son of James T. and Pauline Hensley Williams, married Mary "Polly" Sparks on December 25, 1871, Pike County, Kentucky. Their children: Silas Williams, born November 16, 1872; Andrew Williams, born 1875, died December 26, 1886; Julie Williams, born 1876, married William Mead; Annie Williams, born February 8, 1879, died January 9, 1969; Bowles Williams died young; O.C. Williams; and Hiram Williams, born November 26, 1883, died September 18, 1971.

Pauline Hensley Williams' mother was Nancy McGinnis. She was a daughter of Henry Farley and first married Stephen Hensley and had Sara, Stephen and Pauline Hensley. She then married Pyrrus McGinnis. James T. (Trammel or Trimble) Williams' sister, Mary Williams, married James McGinnis, son of Pyrrus McGinnis and his first wife.

FAMILY NOTES

HUSBAND NOTES: William Gannon

Burial: The cemetery is located a few miles southeast of Vermillion, which is a small place a few miles from Paris, Illinois.

General: In the 3 Dec 1978 issue of "Appalachian Ancestors" [a publication of the Pike County (KY) Historical Society], an article was reprinted from the 31 Oct 1978 Paris, Illinois "Beacon-News". The article had been forwarded by a Ross J. Donalson of Taylorville, Illinois. It reports on a dedication ceremony (by the Edgar County [Illinois] Historical Society and the Madam Rachel Chapter of the DAR] at the gravesite of William Gannon. The original article was entitled "Revolutionary War Grave is Dedicated". In a note by the reporter (Dorcas Hobbs), he said that many of William's descendants still reside in Pike County.

The article reported that William was a Revolutionary War soldier (Private) who enlisted in July, 1780 in Rowan County, North Carolina (Salisbury area) in a company commanded by Captain Peter O'Neal which was part of the regiment commanded by Colonel Matthew Saxe. In January 1781, he enlisted for 12 months in the company commanded by Captain William Coles under Colonel Locks regiment and marched to Catabwa (West of present-day Salisbury, NC) where he was ordered to go get corn for the army. It is reported that he got 300 bushels and returned to fight in the Battle of Catabwa on 1 Feb 1781.

He was next in the Battle of Eutaw Springs and Guilford Courthouse (just NNW of present day Greensboro, NC) under the command of Colonel Washington. They went on to Huganue where they took 150 Tories as prisoners. In this battle, Gannon was wounded with a shot to the head. They next marched to Camden (in Northeastern NC across from Elizabeth City) where they captured 500 British soldiers. He was discharged after this.

In William's pension application, he stated that he came from Ireland to the Salisbury District of North Carolina where he lived until the close of the Revolutionary War. He then moved to Rockingham County, North Carolina (north of Greensboro) where he lived for 30 years before coming to Floyd County, Kentucky (in that part which later became Pike County in eastern Kentucky) for six years, and finally back to Edgar County in eastern Illinois. William, Sr., William, Jr. and Daniel all appear on the 1823 tax list of Pike County, Kentucky.

William entered land in Edgar County (Paris area) on 12 May 1829. His pension certificate No. 133383 was issued 3 Jul 1833 at the rate of $50 per year beginning in March of 1831. In 1840, he was living with the family of Henry Pennington in Edgar County.

Reports say that William and his wife had three daughters and seven sons. If so, three of the sons names are not presently known.

One record shows that this William also had a daughter named Hannah, b. 1819 in Stokes County, NC. It shows that Hannah married a Henry Pennington in 1833. This is probably the same Pennington's of Edgar County referred to above. It is doubtful that Hannah was a daughter since William's wife, Betty, would have been 59 years old when Hannah was born.

Another record [the 1800 Guilford County census, p. 631] shows a Mark Gannon and a William Gannon and Militia Records of Guilford County, N.C. (War of 1812) shows a William Gannon and a Mark Gannon on the muster roll of the Calvary, detached from the Militia of North Carolina, fourth company, detached from the Eight Brigade (War of 1812). Mark was a 1st Corporal and William was evidently a private. Compiler does not know who these two men are. Mark could be an unknown son of William who died in the War of 1812, but that is unlikely due to his rank and probable age. Compiler cannot even guess who the William serving with Mark is, unless it is this William, serving with his son at a much lower rank?

Much of the Gannon/Williams ancestry comes from the publication of the Pike County Historical Society entitled "Appalachian Ancestors". Much of that information is extracted from the Pike County records and the "Annals of Floyd County 1800-1826" by Charles C. Wells, published by Gateway Press of Baltimore in 1983.

WIFE NOTES: Elizabeth (Betty) Trimble

Burial: Elizabeth is buried beside William.

CHILD NOTES: Mary (Polly) Gannon

General: Some reports show Mary was born in Stokes County, NC which is located north of Winston-Salem. That county was not mentioned by Polly's father in his pension application. Stokes County borders what is now Rockingham County. Evidently it was once part of Rockingham County.

CHILD NOTES: James Trimble Gannon

CHILD NOTES: Daniel Gannon

Death: Death records, Pike County, Kentucky from microfilm of the Kentucky Historical Society. Daniel Gannon - Age 83 - M - widowed - Farmer - died in 1877 of sickness - born in VA

General: Daniel and his children, Barnabus, Jonathan, Mary and Sarah Ann all appear in an abstract of the Marriage Records of Pike County, Kentucky, 1822-1865, compiled by Clyde Runyon of Belfry, KY in 1984 (p. 326). Daniel's brother, William also appears therein.

CHILD NOTES: Margaret (Peggy) Gannon

CHILD NOTES: William Gannon Jr.

General¹: Supposedly, William Gannon, Jr. had three or four children of his own by a woman named Elizabeth but compiler cannot find a wife named Elizabeth. We know that William arrived in Kentucky from North Carolina between 1805 and 1816, probably with his parents and siblings. He was on the 1823 tax list for Pike County, Kentucky along with his father and brother, Daniel.

In the November (1820) term of the Floyd County (Kentucky) court, there is an order that was entered "for the payments of levy's collected by the court included one to an Elizabeth Gannon for her support by William Gannon". If this was William's first unknown wife, then she undoubtedly divorced him as a result of his adultery with Susanna. William would have been 20 years old at Allen Shockey's birth and Susanna then about 17 years old. Is it possible that the William and Elizabeth subjects of the court order, were really William, Sr. and his wife Elizabeth? Records show that William, Sr. and his wife both moved on to Edgar County, Illinois, so that probably is not the answer especially since they are buried beside each other (see notes on Susanna) or unless Elizabeth reconciled with her husband.

In the marriage records of Pike and Floyd counties in Kentucky quite a few Gannon's appear dating back to 1815. No Gannon's appear in the 1810 census.

Compiler received the names of some children of an Edgar William Gannon, Jr. and Marian Williamson that came from a handwritten ancestral chart provided to compiler by Zandra Horn that she got from another source. It has not been verified and appears quite unreliable at this point. It shows children born between 1801 and 1812, who simply could not be the children of this William and Mary Ann. It is certainly possible that this William had an older brother named Edgar (b. abt 1790). He would have been born in North Carolina

CHILD NOTES: Elizabeth Gannon

General: Ashe County is located in Northwestern NC along the Tennessee and Virginia borders. Compiler has not yet determined what they were doing there, when it was not mentioned in William's pension application.

CHILD NOTES: Samuel Gannon

HUSBAND NOTES: William Gannon Jr.

General¹: Supposedly, William Gannon, Jr. had three or four children of his own by a woman named Elizabeth but compiler cannot find a wife named Elizabeth. We know that William arrived in Kentucky from North Carolina between 1805 and 1816, probably with his parents and siblings. He was on the 1823 tax list for Pike County, Kentucky along with his father and brother, Daniel.

In the November (1820) term of the Floyd County (Kentucky) court, there is an order that was entered "for the payments of levy's collected by the court included one to an Elizabeth Gannon for her support by William Gannon". If this was William's first unknown wife, then she undoubtedly divorced him as a result of his adultery with Susanna. William would have been 20 years old at Allen Shockey's birth and Susanna then about 17 years old. Is it possible that the William and Elizabeth subjects of the court order, were really William, Sr. and his wife Elizabeth? Records show that William, Sr. and his wife both moved on to Edgar County, Illinois, so that probably is not the answer especially since they are buried beside each other (see notes on Susanna).

In the marriage records of Pike and Floyd counties in Kentucky quite a few Gannon's appear dating back to 1815. No Gannon's appear in the 1810 census.

WIFE NOTES: Susanna Shockey

Death: Susanna did not move. Magoffin County was formed in 1860 from Floyd, Johnson and Morgan counties.

General²: Born in Montgomery County, VA but moved with her parents abt. 1815 to Pike County, Kentucky. She was married in 1822 to Andrew Burton but he was not the father of her son, Allen.

In the Annals of Floyd County 1800-1826 it is reported that on Monday, 21 AUG 1820 in the August Term of County Court the following finding was made by the court; "William Gannon appeared in open court to answer a charge of bastardy brought by oath by Susannah Shockey. It appears to the court that the said Gannon is the father of the bastard child and that he pay the sum of $50 for the support and maintenance of said child. It is to be paid in five annual installments." Susanna gave Allen her surname. No record was ever shown that Andrew adopted Allen. Susanna and Andrew made their home in Magoffin County, Kentucky and had nine children.

Somehow, there must be more to the saga since compiler's father (Hubert) had a middle name of Gannon (4 generations later). One wouldn't think that the name would have been passed down unless there was more to the relationship than simply fathering her child. When Hubert Gannon Shockey was born, several of Susanna's grandchildren (including Hubert Gannon's grandfather, Elias) were living and some kind of story may have been passed down that explains why he got the name "Gannon". There were a lot of "Gannon's" in the area during Susanna's early years and compiler tends to believe that Susanna likely became close to some of them and carried the name down to her descendants.

Curiously, the maiden name of the mother of Mary Helen Hagar (spouse of Hubert Gannon Shockey, Jr.) was also "Gannon." No connection has yet been found to William Gannon in Floyd County, KY.

CHILD NOTES: Allen Shockey

Death: Breathitt County was formed in 1839 from Clay, Estill and Perry counties.

General: Lived for a short time in Morgan County, Kentucky, then in Owsley County and finally in Breathitt County, Kentucky where they spent the rest of their lives. Allen and Matilda had seven children.

Thanks for the info. The last name that ring a bell with me is Hammond. My GG Grandparents were Francis Fluty Jr and Esther Hammond. Francis Jr's parents were Francis Sr and Elizabeth Endicott. So maybe there's a connection. I do have the names of Eliz's siblings and children.. I've seen the Endicott's in Martin Co. census, Dolores and I are probably from the same line.

I noticed a name on your list that caught my eye, Mary Gannon. Were her parents Sunill and Orpah Gannon, from North Carolina? I saw a Mary Gannon married to a James Allison with son Robert Gannon, 1, in the 1850 Pike County Ky census. In 1860 Mary is married to someone named Brown and Robt Gannon isn't there either, but a second Allison boy is there with the Brown children. I was looking for clues to the earlier life of my GG Grandfather James Paris Allison, also from N. Carolina. He was in his 30's when he married my GGGrandma Anna Hatfield in 1857, in Logan County, W.Va. then moved with three sons and Anna's Hatfield brothers to Mossyrock Wa in 1903. I found and visited their cemetery just two years ago. Mom found the grave of her Uncle that she never met, as well. Quite a find for us. I'm wondering if he is the James Allison in Pike County in 1850. Pike County is right across the river from Mingo County W.Va where Anna and James lived. Mingo used to be part of Logan County Va then WV. I'm visiting that area in October. (First time in 50 years) I'm hoping to go to Pikeville to see if I can find a marriage license or something about this James Allison with Mary Gannon.

Thanks again for the info.
